We did it, Class of 2011! As I look back on my years in Harwich I realize I couldn't have done it alone. Mom and Dad- Thank you for everything you've ever done for me. You both have supported me so much, and have taught me to work hard for whatever I want. You have made me the person I am today. Love you both! Jimmy and Tim- You are the best older brothers I could have ever asked for. I have looked up to both of you from the start. Thanks for leading me in the right direction. Mackenzie & Hill- I have had the best few years of my life with you two crazy girls. I couldn't have asked for better friends. WDYC, girls' soccer, sailing, Class of 2011- so many memories to look back on! These have been the best four years. Good luck to everyone!

Harwich High School has been the most fun of my life. I love hanging out with the Best Buddies, Mackenzie, Emily, Molly, Leah, Yana, Michelle and my prom date Nancy. We have had great times together going bowling, out to the movies, the Best Buddies dances, Harwich School Day Games and the Prom. I want to thank all my friends and Mrs. Dooley who were there for me everyday. To my parents and my sister Bryanne, I love you. Peace

"I came, I saw, I conquered." -Gaius Julius Caesar

I know everybody says I'm going to miss high school, but in all honesty I can't say I will. As a senior coming here for 2 years, I really loved a few things, but the rest I can't really say how I feel due to the sensitive nature of yearbooks. I love acting, singing, football, and learning. School environment is not particularly enjoyable for me, but it is safe to say that many of the faculty might miss me as an enjoyable student to have in class. However, socially here I was at a great disadvantage of having to find out everyone for myself. Sometimes first impressions stay with you forever. But I can't say I regret anything. I just want to go forward.

"Accept the things to which fate binds you, and love those with whom fate brings you together with."

You don't realize how quickly time passes until it's finally senior year. To my parents, thank you for all the support you've given me, I appreciate everything. Reid & Paige, thanks for helping me with all the shenanigans I got myself into in high school, love you both. ML & JN, I've had the craziest, best, most memorable times with you both & I love you girls so much. CH- I love you & the crazy antics we always get ourselves into.. girlfriends for life?! GLM- You have made me such a happy girl, I couldn't ask for anything better. GP- I'll miss ya & our cornerstore dates, behave yourself at HHS little lady! AM- You've been my best friend for these past 10 years, you already know. And to my girls- MD, LA, SE, KC, AB, ST, SC, MK, LS - I love you all & high school wouldn't have been the same without you guys! The boys- always there to give me a good laugh, it won't be the same without you all, lots of love! And to the class of 2011- I can't believe these past 13 years together have gone by so fast and graduation has come this quick. Through all our ups & downs it's been the best four years & I wouldn't trade it to spend with any other crazy, insane, outta control class. You've all had such an impact on me and I'll miss it all. I wish all of you luck in wherever the future may take us. We're outta here!

Matt Charves

First off, I want to thank my family for helping me get this far. I also want all my friends to know how important they are to me and how they helped me get through these four years. BK, I don't even know where to begin, so I'm just going to say this, thanks for everything. ES, couldn't have made it without you. MH, you completely changed my perspective on life and I will always be thankful for that. TS, you may be the complete opposite of me, but it works. MW, second grade, that's all I'm going to say. I also want to thank all of my teachers who have made me challenge myself and helped me become the student I am today. Without all of you, I would have never seen myself wanting to become a teacher. When I leave HHS, I will know that this is not the end, it is only the beginning. Keep smiling, it's almost over.

Well my time here is almost up, but I can't say I'm happy to go. High School has been a high point of my life since I was a freshman. The positives always outweighed the negatives, and I have my friends to thank for that. I found my niche early on and grew up with you guys. My closest friends, Ben, Kirby, Gustavo, and Molly, kept me afloat through everything. We've always had each other's backs up to now, and I don't think it will end with high school. We'll always be the tightly knit group we have been. I hope all the other friends I've made here keep in touch too, the FCP kids, soccer kids, track kids, everyone else, and all the teachers who have helped me come to this point. I'll cherish my high school memories forever...even if the yearbook costs more than college.

At the start we were wishing for school to be over and at the same time not having a single thought of how soon it would all end. Now we are here and it seems like it has flown by. The same nervousness and excitement of the first day ever, but now for something different. It has been an awesome four years and now we are all ready to move on to something hopefully even better :) To the class of 2011, great job, we made it, and good luck! Thanks to the teachers who made me better and taught me things I will never forget. Family, thank you for your support, love, and putting up with me for these years, and friends, you know who you are, you're incredible and I couldn't wish for better. You make life amazing and I love you all!!! <3

High school has been, like for many of us, a place with its up and downs. But because of my friends and family and those who I can't tell the difference between. You have made this short 4 years a time that I will always remember with joy. I also like to thank the teachers that dedicate all of their time and effort in teaching us students. Especially to Ms. Richard and Mrs. Donovan for always being there to talk to and staying way after rehearsals till I was picked up. My parents you also have changed my life because no matter what I came home saying I was going to do next you were there supporting me. I Love both of you even if I drive u crazy. Now's its about time that I thank my closest friends (sry if your not on here maybe we should of hung out more) Tyler #2(Holmes) you will be my friend forever bro. Rebecca S. your sassy nature and ability to keep me in check all these years is truly something I will miss. Emily M. thanks to you Latin was never bad and our Prom was something I won't forget, also the thought of being "spontaneous" with you. Here are my friends who mean a lot to me even if they don't know it but because of space concerns I can't tell u why, so here you are Don S, The Spalts, P.B.J.P, J.R, E.B, Mac.H.A.M.Iago, The Football team, All Actors and Actresses, G.B, J.N, M.L, G.A. I wanted to thank my family, we may not have it all together but together we have it all and my Jaime, I have a long list of things to say but I'll leave it at you amaze me and I love you. I would also like to send my regards to Mr. Beer because he's a champ for more than one reason, and also to Ms Campbell for always being there for me. To my beloved seniors and all those who've touched my heart these past 13 years; I would like to thank you all, for one way or another each one of you has inspired me to be the person I am today. I am honored to have represented you as president, Thanks for making the ride worthwhile and putting up with me, (I know it's hard at times). I wish you all the best of luck with all of your life's journeys, and perhaps our roads will cross again at one point or another. HHS, I do believe I have left my mark, and there's no easy way of getting it out. So be good, and don't do anything I wouldn't do :)

What a journey there two years have been! I remember being so nervous to come here to Harwich thinking it would be so hard to learn English. Now I am so proud of what I can do! It has been easy to become part of this school. I will always remember junior year basketball when I got my nickname, Kobe, and making the team laugh with every shot I took. So many great times with my friends Justice, Evan, Jason, Time, Luidgi, and Emmanuel that I will never forget. Many thanks to my teachers Mrs. Bourke, Mr. Bennett, Mrs. Callagy, Mrs. Capen, and Miss Weeks for all your help. Thank you to my sister and my Mom for all your love and support. I can't wait to see what happens next!

"Do not worry if you have built your castles in the air. They are where they should be. Now put the foundations under them." –Henry David Thoreau

Coming to Harwich halfway through my sophomore year was a tough experience for me. But it was also a really important experience for me. I met teachers that allowed me to learn valuable lessons, especially Mrs. Leete and Mrs. Chilaka. I fell into the trends of wearing Ugg boots, going to Bank Street beach, owning more yellow than I will in the rest of my lifetime, joining clubs, and really becoming part of this school. All of the people that I met were really influential on the person that I am now. Most of all, my family helped me through a lot. So thank you for that, and good luck for the next four years here Jacob, enjoy it. And finally, Harwich High school allowed me to meet Max Dowgiallo last year, who has supported me through absolutely everything, thank you. So now I leave Harwich High school, and all of my memories and move on to a new chapter.

Thank you, Dad and Shaneen, Mom and Kelsey, for helping me get through all the ups and downs of growing up. Congratulations Class of 2011, we finally made it to our senior year. Setting foot in HHS 4 years ago I remember thinking of my senior year as too far away to comprehend. But as June is closing in fast, it becomes a reality. I want to thank all of my friends: T.U, E.N, J.F, N.J, C.A, M.T, J.E, I. M, K.P, J.A, T.M, D.J., D.E, D.C, and countless others who helped me through my high school career. I wouldn't be where I am today without the inspiration of the strongest person I know, my mother who was, and is, always there for me. Our bond as a class won't be shaken by the future, only strengthened by the memories we shared in these halls the past years. Good luck class of 2011, I know each and every one of you will go on to do great things. One love.

These past four years at Harwich have been the best four years of my life. The fun ranged from doing what I love in playing sports everyday after school, to actually going to Europe. I've had my ups and downs at Harwich High School, but in the end it all came out good. I'm glad I've done everything I did; it would be nothing without all the experiences. I don't know if I would have realized that without meeting Mr. Sowpel and learning from him and Mr. M. They have made me think a lot more about real life... I would like to thank all my friends for always being there no matter what, especially to my closest boys; Dylan, Jimmy, and Miah, who I have shared all my times with. I would also like to thank the rest of my boys; TM, TM, TR, JA, DC, CF, KG, KP, IM, The Alaskan Assassin. R.I.P Charlie Birchett, you will always be in my heart. We will all always love and miss you. Love you homie! Thank you everybody for getting me through high school with all your help. Last but not least I wanted to thank my parents for being so understanding through everything. It's been a fun and interesting road through High school. Peace out!

These past years at Harwich have been like no other. I have gone to Harwich since kindergarten and I couldn't think of a better place to go. I love my family for always being at games, ceremonies, and even the little things. Teachers that have inspired me to push my boundaries, and show my character. My coaches that have given me hope, inspiration, and time to do what I thought couldn't be done. Ryan, we have been friends for over a decade and our friendship will go for decades on. Garrett, you will always be there to challenge me, and I will love every minute of it. Dan L, you have got it, I don't know what 'it' is but you've got it. Dan D, you will always be there to crack a joke and make me smile. Donald, you have that classic sense of humor that will always bring me back to a better time, thank you. Murphy, we've known each other since way back, the respect I have for you is end less and never forget who you are. Thank you everyone that I have forgotten for making my time at Harwich better than anything

To all of my close friends at HHS, I would like to thank each of you for all the wonderful times we have shared! Lunch time was always so much fun. Coming to a new school was a difficult time for me, but so many of you made me feel loved and welcomed! "Every story has an ending, but in life, every ending is just a new beginning."

"These last four years at Harwich High School have been some that I won't forget. Many good times and bad, and I had good friends for support when that happened. Brianna Kluza was one that's always helped me a lot. She wants to be a psychologist and she's great at it, so if you have problems go to her. Being in high school is such an amazing experience. When you become a freshman, you're so excited to finally be "grown up" and out of middle school. Then when junior year slowly rolls around, you think "could it have come any slower?" and you begin to feel on-top as you become an upper classman. Then when your senior year comes, you feel like it all went by so fast, it's scary. But we're graduating and going on with our lives and into the real world, ready or not. Harwich High has done it's best for us, and I will admit, I'm scared, but I'm excited and as ready as I'll ever be. I wish everyone the best of luck in life and hope to see you all soon!"

First of all, thank God, it's over! It's easy for me to leave because there is nothing here important I am leaving behind. Graduation Day I'm going running from this place & never ever coming back. Mom & Dad, thank you for EVERYTHING! I love you both so much and couldn't have made it through without your love and support. Everything I have and everything I am today is because of you guys. Harwich has been a stepping stone for me and a place of trial & error, in a semi-supporting atmosphere. I have grown so much and learned a lot here. Harwich has taught me life lessons through my mistakes. Colin John West my best friend & bf. My loving bf I love you so much and without your love and support I couldn't have made it through high school. You love me unconditionally & I love you uncontrollably. 1.9.10 Forever always<3. Mum, Dad, and Colin, you mean the world to me and I don't know what I'd would do without you guys. I know I def couldn't have made it through high school without you three.

Thank you to my amigos for all of your help throughout the years. Thanks to the arts department for helping me become a better person and become more outgoing. I will miss all of you. Seniors, I know we have all been through some rough times, but I believe that we have all helped each other become a better person. When we all first got to Harwich high school we were all sort of cocky and didn't want to listen to anyone, now that has all changed. I know we will all not stay in touch, but I hope that we can at least not forget each other. I will miss you all, and in the future, if you see me on the street, I hope you can all still tell me and Tobey apart.

Harwich high school class of 2011, thank you so much for letting me come into your family. I'm so happy to be where I am today and I'm proud to see the person I've become. You've all helped me to forget my past to make something new and much better. It's crazy looking back at the freshman this year (AP art is with about 20 freshman) and thinking I was once in their shoes, it seems like I was them just the other day, but the time is coming soon for me to leave high school behind. I'd like to thank Ben Vohs and Mackenzie Kiefer for being two of the closest friends I could ever ask for. So many times to look back on and smile about thanks to you two. Harwich Chatham hockey boys, I couldn't thank you enough for changing my mind completely on what a team should look like, you're the closest bunch I have ever met. And I could never forget my parents; I owe the most to you. Mom thanks for introducing me to this school and thank you for pushing me to be better. Dad, you showed me how to be a man, how to respect, and how to accept others, you are a mentor and an inspiration of what I want to become. BV, MK, EW, JM, MG, CM, CL, DM I love you all and I'll never forget you.

Okay, so. We're seniors now and graduating. I'd like to recognize my close group of friends, Yiorgos, Ben, Gustavo and Don, Becca and Molly. I have a feeling that I'm going to see the guys pretty frequently even after we're out of high school. Hopefully we all end up going wherever we want to in life, but whatever happens after, it's been a quality four years. Gus, wish you hadn't had to move to Brazil. Yerg, Ben and Don, it's been sweet, you guys made high school just about as good as it can possibly be. Good to have you guys for the whole four years. Becca, Team Win and whatever other stuff I made up. Molly, you've been a good friend. Garrett, Mike, and Shawn, and all my other like four friends, good luck guys. Oh, before I forget, thank you all for putting up with my various idiosyncrasies throughout the years. Thanks to my family and my teachers as well. And, don't forget, my friends, to be incorruptible.

It's hard to believe how fast these 4 years at Harwich have come and gone. I wouldn't have been able to survive this roller coaster called High School without my family. William, it's truly been crazy having you as an older brother. I love your goofy ways and how you always manage to make me smile. These past four years of high school have been full of ups and downs, but in the end it all came together for me. Harwich High School has given me confidence and motivation to step out of my comfort zone and do things that I never thought possible. Because of my experiences in high school, I am prepared to enter the college arena and eventually the work world. For all of the encouragement and support that my family has provided me there four years, I owe a lot to my dad, my brother, Matt; and my two sisters, Jennifer and Sarah. I would also like to thank my mentors: Mrs. Hemeon, Mrs. Sessler, and the late John Ryan. Each of them, in their own special way inspired me to go into teaching. And I will never forget Mr. Ryan's unique sense of humor and his favorite feline, Bill the Cat. My friends have helped me immensely to get through high school. I thank you all, you know who you are.

Matthew Witzgall

"I am what I am today because of the choices I made yesterday."-Eleanor Roosevelt

Thirteen years have come and gone, and through life's ups and downs, ins and outs, and twists and turns, we've grown to become intelligent, knowledgeable, and mature adults who no longer look at life the same way we used to. Nobody said this journey was going to be easy, but life isn't going to give you a break because you're not ready. This is our time to break out of our shells, rise up and shine; our time to show ourselves and the world exactly what we're capable of. For me, none of this would have been possible without help from all of my friends, family, and teachers throughout the years. Amy, you mean the world to me and I'm so glad that you're a part of my life - I love you. Melissa and Michelle, my sisters who I've been through thick and thin with. My mom, Brian, Jenny, and Sarah - thanks for putting up with me. I love you all, and also to anyone else who hasn't been mentioned. So here we go. It's time for life - hang on tight...

"Gotta hold on, gotta stay strong.. I'll see you at the crossroads, so you wont be lonely. And I'm gonna miss everybody. Livin' in a hateful world, sendin me straight to heaven."

From all of us at Harwich High School. Rest easy. You touched so many people coming in and out of this world. God only takes the best. Many people at HHS were very close to you, and they have some great things to say:

"In reflecting on who Charlie was, it becomes clear that he exemplified what we all aspire to be as members of the Harwich High School Community - careful and enthusiastic learners, respectful citizens, and caring individuals. We will miss Charlie."

"Charlie was loved by many people. It is so unfortunate that the worst things happens to the best people. I remember when we were together that morning and had plans to play guitar that night. It is so sad to see so much talent and such a good soul pass. He never tried to impress anyone - he was happy with who he was. We all have such great memories of him. I will always remember the last image of him - he had such a beautiful smile..."

In the words of Sowpel and all of his students; and from the rest of us at Harwich High School, rest in peace Charlie Birchett. We will most certainly never forget you.
